

PITLOCHRY Festival Theatre

Port na Craig Rehearsal and Community Education Studios

Our Port na Craig Rehearsal and Community Education Studios are situated a few hundred yards up the road from the theatre. To get there by car from the A9 you don't have to come through Pitlochry itself. Pass the normal Pitlochry turnoff and take the local Access road (Yellow line on map). Turn Left coming from the North/turn Right coming from the South, then sharp left through two red sandstone pillars which also serves as the main entrance for Fonab Castle Hotel and Spa. Follow the drive and you will see a large red sandstone building. The studios are situated in the low building to the right of this and behind the car park. The entrance to the rehearsal rooms is down the left hand side of the rehearsal building from the car park area.

Alternatively from the Theatre (red line on map) leave the car park and turn right up hill. Then right again, through the same pillars, along the drive to the car park.

It's only a 10 minute walk from the Theatre too. (Blue line) Take the path up to the garden then follow the road up hill. If in doubt, just ask at the Theatre.
