SUMMER SEASON 2025

WELCOME

Hello everyone,

Welcome to the Pitlochry Festival Theatre Summer Season 2025!

I am so excited to be the new Artistic Director of this great institution, but it is my predecessor Elizabeth Newman who I must credit for this amazing array of musicals and plays you will be enjoying this summer. This season is a celebration of Elizabeth and everything she has done for Pitlochry Festival Theatre in expanding our reach both in terms of co-productions with other theatres around the country, but also in terms of imagination and the possibility of what we can do here in our Theatre in the Hills.

I have already seized the baton from Elizabeth and am planning next year's season that I hope will both mirror and magnify everything she has worked for in her tenure. Stay tuned for more details of that later in the summer!

If you haven't visited us for a while, you may notice a few changes. I feel the quality of the experience you have in our building is just as important as the quality of the work we put on our stages.

So with that in mind, we are introducing a programme of events and classes, changes to our menus and all sorts of ideas to make our building more welcoming and comfortable - literally and metaphorically. I want you all to remember that this building belongs to you! So please use it - even if it's to come and have a coffee and take in the gorgeous view of Ben-y-Vrackie!

I'm also scheduling a variety of shows, talks and readings in our Amphitheatre and so please sign up to our newsletter or social media channels to make sure you don't miss out on hearing about them.

Finally, we are all looking forward to welcoming you, or welcoming you back, and please do let me know if you have any ideas about how we can make your experience at Pitlochry Festival Theatre better. I'm looking forward to hearing from you!

Nan Shepherd: Naked and Unashamed returns following its huge success at Pitlochry Festival Theatre in 2024. Award-winning Firebrand's richly entertaining, funny and moving play uncovers the extraordinary, unconventional woman behind the glamorous portrait on the Scottish five-pound note.

THIS IS A GIFT

24 JUN – 11 SEP | 2.30PM & 8PM
STUDIO

If you could have one wish, what would it be?

Zoe is about to head off to university, assuming she's got the grades. Dad's gilding business is struggling but they don't talk about that. Summer is here and everything is about to change. Hopefully.

When Silvain passes out against their door, Zoe and Dad take him in and care for him – a simple act of kindness that has unexpected consequences. As a token of his gratitude, Silvain's friend, Dennis, offers Dad a wish. But all wishes come with a price. Gold does not glitter. Gold just blinds.

An exploration of class, care and consequences, This is a Gift by Kolbrún Björt Sigfúsdóttir is a modern take on the Midas myth set in Leith.

NESSIE

9 JUL – 16 AUG | 2.30PM
STUDIO

On the scenic banks of Loch Ness lies the town of Bruachness, a place steeped in mystery and folklore, where the local residents live in cautious awe of the legendary Loch Ness Monster, believed to bring misfortune to those who glimpse it. Tales abound of torn fishing nets, capsized boats, and a haunting fog that marks the Monster's presence. But everything changes when an 11-year-old budding biologist named Mara encounters the Monster — who prefers to be called Nessa, thank you very much — and survives to tell the tale.

Nessie is a new captivating Scottish musical that celebrates bravery, the strength of friendship and the courage to follow one's own heart.

A TOAST FAE THE LASSIES

29 AUG – 24 SEP | 2.30PM & 8PM
STUDIO

It's January 25, 1797, in the quiet graveyard of Dumfries, and Agnes Broun is remembering her recently departed son, Robert Burns. Her solemn visit is interrupted by an unexpected encounter with Jean Armour, Robert's widow and mother to his nine children. The two women, bound by a shared history and unresolved tensions, clash as they come face-to-face.

Unbeknownst to them, a mysterious figure watches from the shadows – Clarinda, Burns' muse and soulmate, who has brought a dram to honour her beloved Rabbie.

Featuring Burns' timeless songs and poetry, including My Love Is Like a Red, Red Rose, Ae Fond Kiss, and Auld Lang Syne.

This dynamic new musical play explores the life of Robert Burns through the perspectives of the three women who knew him best. It highlights how these often-overlooked figures shaped the legacy and contributed to the art of Scotland's greatest poet.
